

STUDENTS' HONOR SYSTEM DROPPED; LED TO CHEATING

Member of Faculty to Be Present at Examinations in Northwestern University.

CHICAGO, May 12. A resolution of the honor system among the students of Northwestern University is announced by the faculty. Dean Roy C. Flickinger of the College of Liberal Arts stated to-day that one of the reasons was that the students had failed to live up to the confidence placed in them and that cheating during examinations had increased under the honor system.

Hereafter a member of the faculty will be present while students are taking examinations. The honor system was instituted five years ago.

ASK TEN-CENT BUS FARES.

State Island Drivers Declare They Want to Keep Bus Fares.

The Staten Island bus drivers on the St. George-Richmond line have asked Grover Whalen, Commissioner of Plant and Structures, to let them charge a 10-cent fare, to be collected on a zone basis. It is hinted that they will quit if he refuses. They say that in the non-rush hours they do not take in enough to pay for gasoline.

Mr. Whalen will speak to the Staten Island Civic League to-night and explain his views in favor of municipal ownership and operation of the trolleys and lighting plant. He will also explain his plans for the development of bus service to the more remote parts of the borough.

GETS BACK HER CHILDREN.

Mrs. Elida Cosgrove of No. 159 Baltic Street, Brooklyn, was in the Brooklyn Children's Court yesterday when proceedings to show she was an improper guardian of her children were heard. Justice Wilkin dismissed the case, holding that the alleged conduct of Mrs. Cosgrove was not in the presence, nor in a manner to corrupt the morals, of her children, Karl, ten; James, nine; Evelyn, eight; and Eugene, six. The children were returned to her.

Mrs. Cosgrove last October gave out to newspaper a story that she had been named as beneficiary in a will by which a long-forgotten uncle had left her $50,000. In court yesterday, when questioned by newspaper men, she admitted she had not heard anything more about the matter. She would not give the address of the lawyer to whom she said she confided the task of looking up the bequest.
